If the appointment is not made in a day

If the appointment is not made in a day or two some decided action will doubtless be taken. All of the candidates are not in favor of the plan. Nor are all the people settled in mind about it. Numerous Conservatives say that by such arrangement Miss Van Lew would secure the nomination through the support of the colored voters. Prominent colored men, on the contrary, say that she cannot count on their vote. Some Republicans say they object to the primary because they believe the Conservaives would concentrate upon one man, and elect him surely. So it goes, Those prominently mentioned for the office are Miss Van Lew, J. A. Jefferds, Colonel W. W. Forbes, Dr. C. S. Mills, H. L. Peouze, Dr. C. Burton, and Dr. George K. The ladies invite their friends and the public.

FIFTY THOUSAND PIANOS. The fifty-thousandth piano made by the great manufacturing house of Chickering & Sons, of Boston, was used on Thursday afternoon at the Howard Symphony Concert. The completion of this instrument certainly "marks an era" in the history of the manufacture of pianos in this country. The firm has been established fifty-four years, and has made on an average nearly one thousand pianos a year since 1823.
